SUICIDES.—Yesterday Mr. Humphreys, the coroner for the Eastern Division of Middlesex, received information of the death of Abraham Levy, aged 22 years, carrying on the business of a butcher at 111, Middlesex-street, Whitechapel. Deceased had bet heavily on the races, and on arrival of the news of the result he appeared very desponding. At a quarter-past six the door of his bed-room was found to be locked, and on its being burst open he was discovered suspended by a rope which he had fastened round his neck to the door. A doctor was called in, but life had been extinct some time. On account of the Jewish custom an inquest will be held this day (Friday). A man unknown was found by one of the park keepers in Victoria-park on the Derby night with his throat cut.
